When the chilly autumn winds wail through the leafiess branches and the whistle of the quail is heard in the meadows, the theart of the hunter is stirred and he longs to shoulder his trusty gun and, with dog at heels, tramp the uplands in search of game—and health. The season is close at hand. Be ready, and when the first holiday comes get an early start. You will need a good Hunting Coat, pair of Leggings and strong, well-made Gloves. Kentucky-Supreme Court Declares Kentucky Courts Were Right in Berea College Case

Washington, November 9th. -In deciding the case of Berea College vs. the State of Kentucky favorably to the State, the Supreme Court of the street. United States today held that the States of the Union may constitutionally legislate to prevent the co-education of the white and black races.

The case was instituted to test the validity of the State law of 1904, prohibiting white students from attending the same schools.

The higher State Court took the position that white and black races are naturally antagonistic and that the enforced of Burtonville, returned home yesterday mornseparation of the children of the two is in line of the preservation of the peace.

HOME STORE, Like Political Predictions,

Oftimes Mislead.

Many of our local merchants, owing to the large sum of money tied up in Mason county's tobacco, predicted that this fall's business would show considerable decrease. They forget Mason county's vast resources aside from tobacco. Our business proves it. Our November sales to date actually show an increase over last year's. Doubtless OUR MERCHANDISE AND PRICES HELP BOOM THINGS ALONG. Few communities are more alert or use better judgment in "shopping" than ours. That's the kind of trade we want. We want people that "compare." That's what we do when we buy. "It gets results." We have secured Mr. Philip G. Boehm, one of Cincinnati's best cutters, to take charge of our Tailoring Department. UNITED STATES Senator Francis G. NEW-LANDS, Democrat, of Nevada, has been reelected by popular vote by a majority of between 2,000 and 3,000. He is immensely wealthy, having legal charge of one of the big California estates left by a forty-niner. He is the most voluble member of the Senate and can talk more and say less than any ten of his colleagues. NEWLANDS bloviates in millions and billions and it would bankrupt the United States Treasury if half his big schemes were adopted. He introduced the high financial proposition for the Government to loan the city of San Francisco $500,000,000 at 2 or 3% to rebuild after the earthquake of 1906. The able Senator never thought, probably, that if the Government favored San Francisco it would also have to help Galveston, Baltimore and all other afflicted cities. These Demi-Pop. statesmen are blind reasoners who never stop to count the cost and never understand that the public money is not coined for any particular section, but for all the people all the time-the greatest good to the greatest number. Uncle Sam plays no favorites, and it is not democratic to ask special indulgences.

MEAT for a debating society: When a woman refuses a man and he takes to drink, it's a question whether he is drowning his sorrow or celebrating his escape.

Election bulletin: Protection is in, and the party of Protection on a Protection platform will revise the Protective Tariff on a Protection basis. And, well, I guess that'll help Newell presiding.

During his address before the Deep Water. for the 1908 tax levy. ways Convention at Chicago Judge WILLIAM H. TAFT said:

"A commodity, raw or finished, is of little or no value until it has reached the place of its use. Transportation then, is the question of the hour. How can we solve it We must have recourse to our waterways."

The election to the Presidency of Judge TAFT is the greatest boost the Ohio river has ever had. There is no doubt now but what the 9-foot proposition will be indorsed by Congress, Speaker Cannon's opposition to the contrary notwithstanding. Judge TAFT is pledged to it, and the great Ohio Valley expects and demands it of him.

TRAGEDY WITH A COMEDY ENDING

An Atchison Romance: He had not known her long, but as she stood in the moonlight a white suit and a blue sash set off her figure so well that he thought he had never seen a prettier picture.

And then he did an awful thing-he kissed her.

The innocent girl shrank from him in horror, and the young man realized that he had gone too far. Indeed, as the panting girl strove to collect herself sufficiently to express the scorn surging in her bosom, the young man thought of the beating he must endure the next day from her father and brothers, and of the long accounts of the fight that would appear in the newspapers.

Fortunately, he had his hat in his hand, and turned

But the girl struggled to speak. She would express her contempt for his action, though it killed her.

"When," she said in a low, faltering voice, full of deep-seated hatred, "are you coming again?"

As Was to Be Expected. Five years ago London took over its waterworks, with the result that water rates have increased rather than diminished. Referring to the operating expenses, Sir Melvill Beachcroft, chairman of the water board, recently "So far it must be admitted that no saving had been effected. I do not think that it was ever anticipated that there would be any saving in the expenses of administration, as the management of a trading concern by a municipal body must always involve expenditure quite outside that which falls on a private company."

Where It Pinches.

"Disgusted" writes to the London Daily Express: "For years past I have always paid at the rate of 21 shillings per annum for water under the New River company, but now I have just received a demand note from the Metropolitan water board for water at th rate of 24 shillings per anuum. This is the benefit (?) we get for doing away with private enterprise and is, I consider, a fair specimen of state trad-

At a meeting called by the board of trade of Audubon, N. J., and attended by about 150 citizens the proposition to install a municipal waterworks was overwhelmingly defeated.

A good many have been asking what is the matter with the Boggs correspondent and other correspondents of THE LEDGER. One gentleman down in Alabama writes for clippings from THE PUBLIC LEDGER containing Boggs items. The correspondence, in our opinion, where they are not made up of local visiting, is one of the most important parts of a local paper. But we have not been able to answer questions concerning the correspondence, as several letters from here have not appeared. and we notice a falling off of many correspondents. We suppose they have been crowded out. Wouldn't THE LEDGER look nice af it was enlarged to a seven or eight column maper?

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Boggs celebrated the oftieth anniversary of their wedding Tuesday, November 3d. A large number of relatives were invited for dinner, many of whom were unable to come, but sent letters of congratulation. Those who came brought nice presents and enjoyed the occasion very much. The two dining-rooms were beautifully decorated with appropriate flowers, evergreens and golden leaves. An elegant dinner was served to about 26 persons, turkey and pumpkin pie indicating that Thanksgiving was near. In the afternoon out of the booth and made a the little company was photographed. WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptomspain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kid-
